REFLECTION

Palm Sunday of the Lord's Passion

It is triumph and tragedy. It is exultation and condemnation. It is a story of unification, and of abandonment, of love and excruciating suffering like nothing we can imagine. Today we share together the triumphant entrance into Jerusalem, greeted as a king with waving palms and shouts of Hosanna! We listen almost in disbelief as his followers and closest friends abandon him in his time of need. We hear the prayer of love, in spite of the events to come, to accept whatever God's plan is for him. We grimace at the details of the beatings and the death on the cross. In the depths of our hearts, we know why he would endure this-love.

It is perhaps the events in the Garden of Gethsemane that we realize both the humanity and unwavering love of Jesus. It is in the garden that we hear his prayer, a calling to his Father for the strength to accept the fate that is soon to befall him. It is the last opportunity he would ever have to avoid his fate; yet he remains, humanly troubled yet divinely willing. We listen to him chastise his followers-and us-for sleeping when he needs us the most. It is in knowing that he needs us as much as we should need him-that his love for us is forever and pure-that we truly begin to understand the pain he was about to endure.

We are reminded in the Catechism of the Catholic Church that it is in the passion of Christ that sin is most manifested and displayed (CCC 1851). The crowds calling for his death, Pilate's indifference, the beatings by the guards, the abandonment by Peter and the disciples; through all of this, it is Christ's death on the cross, in which he accepted and offered redemption for all of our sins, that we turn to today and every day.

The Daughters of Isabella, an organization of Catholic women, was started locally in May of 1936 here in Washington. They will celebrate their 75th anniversary on May 11 of this year. It was founded by Catholic women who wished to be of service to others. It is a philanthropic organization and supports many worthwhile charities with their chief project, the support of the St. Elizabeth Home in Indianapolis which cares for unwed mothers and girls who are experiencing unplanned pregnancies. Counseling, education and adoption services are offered to those who ask for help. Many unborn babies have found good care in homes that otherwise might not have had the chance for life.

Meetings are held once a month on the 2nd Tuesday except for August at the local Knights of Columbus at 7:00 pm. The dues are $13 per year. The Daughters of Isabella is a viable, worthwhile organization and affords the Catholic women of the Diocese a chance to be of service to others. They extend an open invitation to all local Catholic women in the area and also nearby Catholic churches to become a member. If you have an interest or want to learn more about this group, please call any member of Pat Cosby at 254-6844 for further information.
